Re: Chance v. Universal Protection Services, LLC
Case No.: 23-cv-08492

Your Honor,

This office represents the Plaintiff in the above referenced employment discrimination action. We write, jointly with the Defendant, to inform the Court that we've reached a settlement in principle. The Parties are diligently working on reducing their understanding of the settlement to writing and intend to file a stipulation of dismissal in due course. Given this, we request that all deadlines and conferences be adjourned, sine die.

The Parties thank the Court for its courtesy in this regard.

Respectfully Submitted,
LAW OFFICE OF WILLIAM CAFARO

Attorneys for Plaintiff

The Court has been advised that the parties have reached a settlement in principle resolving all issues in this case. In light of that information, the Court intends to issue an order dismissing this action without costs and without prejudice to restoring the action to the Court's calendar provided an application is made within thirty days, unless either party informs the Court within seven days of this Order that they prefer the Court not issue such a dismissal order. Any pending motions are denied as moot and any conferences are adjourned sine die.

SO ORDERED.
